Stories

Thirsty Crow

Once there was a crow. He was very thirsty. He found no water. At last he went into a garden. He saw a pot but little water in it. He thought a plan. He put some stones into it. The water rose up he drank water and flew away.

Moral: (1) He who seeks, find.

(2) "Where there is a will, there is a way."

"Do good have good"

Once a camel and jackal lived in a forest near a bank of river. There was a field of melon across the river. The jackal was fond of melons. One day, the camel carried the jackal on his back. They reached in the fields. After eating, jackal started howling. The owner came and started beating the camel. On returning home, the camel asked the jackal "why he had howled?" the jackal replied it is my habit. After some minutes, the camel sat down in the water. The jackal shouted, "why did you sit in the water?" the camel replied "it is my habit." He again dived and the jackal drowned.

Moral: 1- "Tit for Tat" 2.- Go good have good

Slow and steady wins the race.

Title: The Hare and the Tortoise

Once there was a hare and a tortoise were friends. The hare laughed at tortoise because of his slow speed. One day the tortoise asked the hare to run a race with him. They started the race. The hare ran very fast. He was tired so he slept under the tree. But the tortoise went on moving. When here woke up he ran fast. He was surprised that tortoise had already there won the race. He was much ashamed.

Moral: Slow and steady wins the race.

Essays

(1) Our festivals

Festivals are an essential part of country and tradition. They help us to forget our daily routine. Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Azha are the religious festivals. Eid prayers are offered on Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Azha. On Eid-ul-Azha people distribute meat among relatives and the poor. Independence day is the most important festival. People decorate their houses and hoist flags on their houses. Pakistan day 23rd march is also celebrated with great real zeal. Defense day 6th September, Quaid-e-Azam day 25th December, Iqbal day 9th November are some national festivals. Which are celebrated with great zeal. All our festivals represent our culture and traditions.

A Road side Accident

Last Sunday, I witnessed a roadside accident. It was a horrible scene. A young man was driving a motorbike, while attending a call. He was handling bike with only one hand. He was unware of the traffic around. Suddenly, his bike hit with a brick and he fell down in the middle of the road. He was badly injured. His head was bleeding. Someone call 1122 service. After sometime rescuers reached and took him to hospital.

(2) A visit to a hospital

One day my uncle fell sick. When he consulted a doctor, the doctor advised uncle to be admitted in hospital. We took him to the hospital. Where we come across many other dengue patients. Dengue patients suffer from high fever, head ache and pain in joints. All of them were kept in special wards. Doctors were telling about their diet.

(3) A Rainy Day/Rainfall

It was a hot day of July. Everyone was perspiring from head to feet. At about 2:00 pm, dark clouds appeared. The cool breeze began to blow. Then it began to rain cats and dogs. There was water and water everywhere. The children came out of their houses. They were very happy. The weather was very pleasant. Everything got a new life.

The game I like the most

There are many games. But my favourite game is football. I play football with my friends. There are eleven players in a team. Football is the most popular sport in the world. So, I like this game very much because it is enjoyable game.

(4) A visit to Murree

Last week, my father decided to take us to Murree. We were very excited. We completed our preparations and left for Murree. We reached Murree at 6:00 pm. My father has booked a room in a hotel. Cool breeze was blowing. We went to mall road and enjoyed the weather. Next day we saw mountains. The peaks of the mountains were covered with white snow. We also went to the chair-lift and enjoyed its riding. We saw a lot of monkeys in Ayubia. It was a memorable trip.

(5) Quaid-e-Azam Father of Nation

Quaid-e-Azam is our national hero. He was born in Karachi on 25th Dec, 1876. His father's name was Poonjah Jinnah. He got his early education from Karachi. Then, he went to England for study of law. He thought for the rights of the Muslims. He was very hardworking man. He worked hard for separate home land for the Muslims. Finally, Pakistan came into being on 14th august 1947. He died on 11 September, 1948. His tomb is in Karachi.
